Let's go to market

■ The Lourensford Harvest Market is doing the Helderberg proud by being rated the fourth best market in the Cape only four months after opening.

Take the splendour of one of the oldest and most renowned wine estates of the Cape, add an abundance of superior quality market products. There are 76 stall spaces in a custom-built market space, where the vendors supply a variety of fresh produce and an array of art and handmade goodies, every Sunday from 10am to 3pm, and offers something for everyone – whether you want to eat lunch or shop for unique products, or if you just feel like a lazy Sunday afternoon under the majestic oaks sipping on ice-cold estate wine. There is a variety of children's entertainment and live music every week, and also home-brewed craft beer and an art gallery next door. Entry is free, and dogs and cyclists are welcome.
