This couple met at North West University, which was then called the University of North West. They have been together for 17 years and have a beautiful daughter who is 7 years old. They got married traditionally in 2006.

Boitumelo got proposed to on her birthday. "It was on a Saturday. He took me for a weekend away to celebrate my birthday, and proposed on the Sunday."

REAL WEDDING

She says that the highlight of the day was when she walked down the aisle with her father and saw "my handsome husband-to-be and the music playing and guests ululating. That was quite a beautiful moment, and I knew then that it was a special day that the Lord had made for us.

"Everything was so beautiful - it's difficult to single out one thing. However, the décor was exquisite, and it went well with the beautiful venue. I also loved both of my dresses, and the guests really made the day quite memorable."

Their advice to those of you planning your own wedding is to cherish and savour every moment of your wedding day: "Soak up all the love joy and enjoy. Your wedding is an expression of you as a couple, so choose what works for you as a couple. But most importantly, enjoy!" ♦
