Ensuring internationally recognised standards and career opportunities in the hospitality field

THE ALEIT ACADEMY SPOKESPERSON

THE Aleit Academy specialises in event coordination training, offering a three-year full-time diploma in event coordination; SAQA ID 20613.

In collaboration with the renowned event management company, The Aleit Group, the campus is based on the picturesque Lourensford Estate in the Helderberg.

Experts within their respective fields

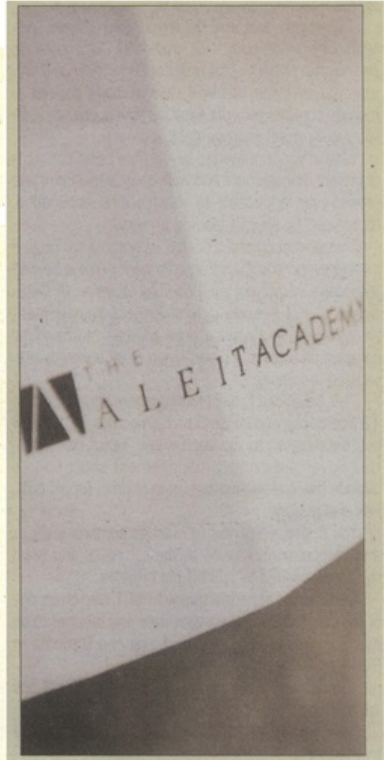

The course consists of 14 modules, presented in theory; class capacity as well as practical training at various events. The course offers students the exceptional opportunity to spend at least 10 months in the form of internships within The Aleit Group, as well as with renowned industry experts within their respective fields. These internships range from event/wedding coordination to décor and interior design, stationery design, floristry, photography, bar and staff training, graphic design and more.

Career opportunities

Our aim is to equip event specialists of the future with the best skills and talents in the industry, ensuring internationally recognised standards and career opportunities in the hospitality field.
